Dear Parents/Caregiver

SCHOOL COLOUR FUN RUN

On Friday 23rd August, we held our School Colour Fun Run. We had a massive show of parents and whanau rallying behind the tamariki. It is always wonderful to see parents and whanau get involved in these events, cheering and showing great support and sportsmanship.

We had lovely weather, a huge turnout and great support all around. Thank you Parents / whanau for also supporting our senior school camp fundraiser - we raised a total of $1,265.

All in all, it was a very successful event.

We would like to especially acknowledge our amazing volunteers organised by Kids Can Charitable Trust from ASB, and also our Police Officers for giving up their valuable time to help us with our event. We value your support and appreciate all your help. Thank you everyone for making it a fun day for not only our tamariki and staff, but also our parents and school whanau alike.

Here are a few photos from last week's event. More photos will be uploaded to our school Facebook page.
